“Faith Alone in Christ Alone”

Accept hearty greetings from your GEM family!

Can you believe that 2016 is almost over? Time seems to fly when one is having fun in God’s Vineyard. Some of you who are not connected with us through email have been wondering what has become of GEM since our last newsletter in December 2015.

The answer is simple: God has had us traveling all over the world. He’s taken us many places—far and near! He’s kept us busy in His mission field with little or no time to compose a newsletter. What a blessing to be of service to Him.

Amazing Testimony

Amazing Escort: We were in Cuba, along with Pastor Mark Perkins, and his team from Front Range Bible Church. We had Bibles and boxes of our publications, even though we knew they could be confiscated at the airport. Talk about a guiding angel! With our luggage piled high, we asked a customs official to show us the exit. He pointed us to the wrong one. We left without a search. One member of our team ran back to pick up something he forgot at the baggage area. As he was about to exit, another customs official stopped him and told him “that’s the wrong exit” and pointed him to the right exit, where passengers were being searched. Well, it was too late, we had already gone through that “angel exit.”

If you remember, I was reluctant and stubborn to respond when God called me into the ministry many years ago. He met my stubbornness with hard knocks, served on a platter of patience and grace. Upon acceptance of His call in my life, I made a covenant with Him—that I would never solicit funding for His work. Over the years, God has faithfully supplied our needs through you. Thank you for being an obedient steward.

Amazing Provision No. 1: Back in 1998 we had a budget of sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000.00), for crusades and conferences in Africa. We had purchased our airline tickets trusting God that we would go. We waited for weeks, the funds were not there. Two days before the departure date, the Lord sent us that amount of money to cover all our expenses. The program was not canceled.

Amazing Provision No. 2: In August 2016, we had a conference planned for The Gambia, Senegal and Nigeria. Keep in mind, our programs are planned sometimes one to two years in advance to enable our hosts to make proper arrangements prior to our visit and our tickets are purchased in advance for a better rate. Our budget was shy by eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00). How could we make this trip? We pick up our last mail for the week on Thursdays and on the last Thursday before the trip there were no funds. Our eyes were on God.

By the prompting of the Spirit, on Friday a GEM team member, who had no knowledge of our shortage of funds, stopped by the post office on his way to the office. We were amazed to discover that God had sent us a check for just the amount we needed to accomplish His work. (continued on page 2)

Dear Grace Evangelistic Ministries:

My mother...passed into eternity to be with her Lord and Savior in March of this year and it was her desire that her savings be divided between a small group of ministries. She specifically identified the ministry of Moses C. Onwubiko because she was familiar with his message and his passion for the furtherance of the Gospel. It is for this purpose she chose to entrust this ministry with these funds. The attached check for $8,859.73 represents this gift. May the Lord bless the use of this gift and your ministry.

We were awestruck! God's work never lacks His provision. He met our needs—"On-time and on-target."

God blessed the use of those funds. Bishop Julius, president of a Nigerian Association of Bishops, attended our conference in Port Harcourt, Nigeria. After the first meeting, he called and canceled the association's national conference, which was scheduled for the following week. He told them that their meeting would not be held until he could convince me to come and bring such truth to his people.

He came to our hotel several times and pleaded with us. As the Lord would have it, we had already made plans to return to Nigeria in November this year. So he invited us to come and hold a two-full-day conference for his ten thousand plus members.

God is at work. He amazes us every day. Our activities are full of amazing testimonies, but space for reporting is limited! He continues to manifest His grace through and for Grace Evangelistic Ministries.

We can't thank Him enough that you are part of our team. Thank you for your tireless monetary and prayer support. They are "a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. My God shall supply every need of yours according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:18-19).

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year!

Moses C. Onwubiko, and your GEM Team

Will you trust Him now?

Word of Encouragement

“Do not Fear”

These three little but powerful words, “Do not fear,” stare at us throughout the pages of Scripture. They are God’s very warning to us—His children, “Do not fear, for I am with you...I am your God” (Isa. 41:10 NIV). “Don’t be anxious.... I keep on strengthening you; I’m truly helping you. I’m surely upholding you with my victorious right hand” (Isa. 41:10 ISV emphasis added).

It’s normal to fear. It keeps us from danger. Without fear we would confront lions head-on, or handle poisonous snakes. Any time you experience fear, it’s proof that your adrenal glands are working properly as God designed them. But why does He command, “Do not fear?”

What God is saying in essence is, “Stop living in fear—extinguish it.” Fear in itself is not sinful; but lingering fear is a sin. King David said, “When I am afraid, I will put my trust in You” (Ps. 56:3). David didn’t say I will never be afraid. The issue is not whether we will be afraid; the real question is what do we do when real fear confronts us? What do we do when we are told, “You have cancer?” What do you do when you lose your job and have no means of paying your bills? What do you do when things fall apart in your life? Do you experience fear? You should. But there is a difference between normal and abnormal fear. Does your fear linger?

Trusting God is the divine solution for extinguishing fear in our souls, “When I am afraid, I will put my trust in You.” We can trust Him because we know He is able. We can trust Him because we know He has our best interests in mind. “I know the plans that I have for you...to give you a future and a hope” (Jer. 29:11). What does all this mean to you? For one thing, you should be assured that God, in His infinite wisdom, is working out His plan for your life.

Is there any news on how God will work out His plan for your life? God does not tell us how; He tells us, “Do not be afraid.” He never told Joseph how He would promote him in Egypt. He simply revealed in a dream that he would be in a position of prominence. He experienced slavery and imprisonment because of false accusations. But in the end Pharaoh appointed Joseph prime minister of Egypt (Gen. 41:38-44).

Consider Job. God never told Job that he would receive a double portion of blessing. He simply permitted Job’s wealth to be wiped out and his health to be struck with a devastating disease. When all was over, “the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before” (Job. 42:10 RSV).

So, what have you been struck with? Quench the fear and trust your God, who will never let go of you. You can repeat Job’s words, “I know that You can do all things, and that no purpose of Yours can be thwarted” (Job 42:2).

While you wait on Him, take courage that your “help comes from the LORD, Who made heaven and the earth. He will not allow your foot to slip. He who keeps you will not slumber” (Ps. 121:2-3). He’s working on His plan for your life. “... I know the plans that I have for you...plans for welfare and not for calamity to give you a future and a hope” (Jer. 29:11). “Be still, and know that I am God” (Ps. 46:10). Latch onto His promise while He perfects His plan, “When you pass through the waters [of austerity measures] I will be with you...they will not overflow you. When you walk through the fire [of economic depression, chronic illness], you will not be scorched, nor the flame burn you. For I am the Lord your God.” (Isa. 43:2-3). “Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go...; for I will not leave you.” (Gen. 28:15). God will not allow you to leave this earth until His plan for your life carries a stamp “GOD’S PLAN FULFILLED IN TOTO!” Until then keep on recalling His Word, “His favor is for a lifetime; weeping may last for the night, but a shout of joy comes in the morning” (Ps. 30:5).

Grace © 2013 Moses C. Onwubiko

THE WRECKAGE OF ADULTERY

God knows what's best for us. He knows what can make or destroy us. His mandate: "Run from sexual sin!" is meant to shelter us from wrecking our lives. "No other sin so clearly affects the body as this one does. For sexual immorality is a sin against your own body" (1 Cor. 6:18 NLT). To say it bluntly, God in essence is saying, "Don't even think about crossing the line of sexual immorality. The consequences of defiance is ruinous." "God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers" (Heb. 13:4 BSB).

We cannot afford the excruciating pain of severe divine discipline. The statement "God will judge" is literal. He will judge at the time and place of His choosing. King Solomon describes the pain of such discipline with a metaphor of one carrying fire in one's bosom and walking on hot coals—ouch!

(Pr. 6:27-28). He goes on to say, "A man who commits adultery with a woman lacks wisdom, whoever does it destroys his own life. He will get wounds and dishonor. His reproach will not be wiped away" (6:31-32 NET Bible). God has spoken! Lock this statement in your mind as our study progresses: "He will get wounds and dishonor. His reproach will not be wiped away."

By the way, this portion of our study is not a sledge hammer on anyone who has committed sexual sin in the past. God is gracious. His discipline may be light, because one was not well informed regarding the divine discipline for committing such an act. On the other hand, the lesson is for those who are being exposed to the light of His Word: "And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready or act according to his will, will receive a severe beating. But the one who did not know, [the master's will] and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more" (Luke 12:47-48 ESV emphasis added).

Bad News

No one wants to hear bad news. David heard some from Bathsheba, "I am with child" (2 Sam. 11:5 RSV). Isn't having a child a cause for jubilation? It is, but only if the child is conceived within the bounds of marriage. That was not what David expected to hear from her. The news took the air out of his lungs and set his bosom on fire and his feet on hot coals (Prov. 6:27-28). Who in his right mind would want to cross God? David would have known the warning of Proverbs 6:31-32: "A man who commits adultery with a woman lacks wisdom, whoever does it destroys his own life." David had crossed God.

Fires of Guilt

The news of Bathsheba's pregnancy ruined David's evening. If there was any tangible pleasure in sleeping with her, it had been turned into the fire of guilt. Guilt is a monstrous sin. It blazes in our souls like a wild fire. It expels joy and tranquility from one's soul. David was trapped in guilt. Years later he confessed, "Finally, I confessed all my sins to you and stopped trying to hide my guilt. I said to myself, 'I will confess my rebellion to the LORD.' And you forgave me! All my guilt is gone" (Ps. 32:5 NLT). Ultimately David's guilt was lifted, but before then there was a multifaceted drama filled with many masks of hypocrisy yet to play out.

Hiding behind the Mask

What is hypocrisy? It's pretending to be what you are not, hiding your face behind a mask. Hypocrisy is a stigma on Christianity. Unbelievers spot it and recoil. Jesus hated hypocrisy. He lambasted the Pharisees and the scribes, "woe to you...pretenders...hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which on the outside appear beautiful, but inside they are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. You...outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. (Matt. 23:13-14, 27-28). That was true of David.

David's Act of Covering-up His Sin

David took an extreme route in his attempt to cover up his sin. David knew better, for he wrote, "LORD, you have examined me; you have known me. You know

"Woe to you...
pretenders...hypocrites!"

when I rest and when I am active. You understand what I am thinking when I am distant from you” (Ps. 139:1-2 ISV). He could have gone to God and confessed his sin, but he didn’t. Rather, he resorted to a human viewpoint solution, with the hope of covering up his sin.

David Opens the Can of Hypocrisy

First tactic. David’s first course of action was to bring Uriah, Bathsheba’s husband, home from the battlefield, where David himself should have been. His aim was to lure Uriah home so he would sleep with his wife, which would make the child appear to be Uriah’s.

David wears the first mask of hypocrisy: “When Uriah came to him, David asked about the welfare of Joab and the people and the state of the war” (2 Sam. 11:7). Isn’t that wonderful for David to show his heartfelt concern for his army commander and those in harm’s way? “How is everyone?” But does his concern for the welfare of his people come from the heart or is there another motive behind his question?

David wears the second mask of hypocrisy:

“Then David said to Uriah, ‘Go down to your house, and wash your feet.’ And Uriah went out of the king’s house, and a present from the king was sent out after him” (v. 8). He didn’t just ask him to go home and sleep with his wife; he sent “a second honeymoon” package after him—gifts that will freshen the house and ignite a sexual bon fire. But Uriah was not lured home to his wife, “Uriah slept at the door of the king’s house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house” (v. 9).

Before we judge David, let’s take a good look at ourselves. Are we representing Jesus Christ in all His glory? Do we have traces of hypocrisy when we deal with others? When we say one thing do we mean something else? The question is a matter between us and God. Hypocrisy is not only a heinous sin, it’s a spoiler. It turns people off. It nullifies our witness for Jesus Christ!

David wears the third mask of hypocrisy: It was reported to David that Uriah did not go home as instructed. Composing himself, David calmly and piously asked him, “Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?” (2 Sam. 11:10). David’s concern for the wearied soldier is magnified for us to behold. Is it really a concern or does he have something else in mind? Uriah’s response is noteworthy: “The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in temporary shelters, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field. Shall I then go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? By your life and the life of your soul, I will not do this thing” (v. 11).

Uriah’s integrity was compelling. He put loyalty over pleasure. He couldn’t see himself staying and relaxing at home with his wife while others were being slaughtered on the battlefield. His response could have awakened David, but it didn’t. We wonder why? The answer is not far fetched: David suppressed God’s Word in his soul and therefore was out of touch with reality. What’s more, he still believes that wearing the mask of hypocrisy will pay off.

David Throws a Party

What’s the purpose of the party? Was it to celebrate a victory? Was it in recognition of Uriah’s medal of bravery? Whatever the case, David’s plan to lure Uriah to visit his wife was unsuccessful. Observe David’s calmness. He was never angry—always sweet-talking. “Then David said to Uriah, ‘Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you go.’ So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next” (2 Sam. 11:12). “Now David called him, and he ate and drank before him, and he made him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his bed with his lord’s servants, but he did not go down to his house” (v. 13).

Read it again: “he made him drunk.” David was desperate. No believer can afford the slippery road of a spiritual quagmire. We must do everything to reverse the course of carnality. Thank God, He has given us a grace way of recovery: “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9). David knew this principle, yet he chose to hold on to his mask. He had his chance to come clean before God and man (Uriah), but he opted out.

David Plots Uriah’s Death

My soul melts and fingers sweat on the keyboard as I write this section. How could “a man after God’s own heart” reach the level of plotting the death of an innocent man? Beware! There’s no sin a believer out of fellowship cannot commit. We deceive ourselves when we say, “One cannot be a believer and commit such a heinous sin.” Every committable sin is within the reach of a of a carnal Christian. David is a perfect example. He plotted Uriah's death.

Hypocrisy is not only a heinous sin, it’s a spoiler.

"Now in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah" (2 Sam. 11:14). The letter is simply an instruction to ensure the death of Uriah: "Place Uriah in the front line of the fiercest battle and withdraw from him, so that he may be struck down and die" (v. 15).

Beware! There's no sin a believer out of fellowship cannot commit.

Imagine carrying a letter of your death sentence? Where was God? He was watching David in silence and calculating the discipline that would fit his heinous acts. Joab, another loyal servant, had a hard time understanding his master's instruction. Joab may have pondered, "What must one of my finest soldiers done to my master deserving such a horrifying death?" On the other hand, he had to follow orders. David ended the life of a husband, a loyal soldier, a man of integrity.

Uriah's Life's cut Short

What did David do after Uriah's death? The answer will surprise you.

Join us for the next installment of this intriguing study of the rise, the fall and the restoration of the finest king Israel ever had. Until we resume, may God's richest blessings abound for you. "Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us, to Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen" (Eph. 3:20-21).

Dear Grace Ministries,

Thanks for your quick and generous response.

Those tracts are a blessing to the ministry.

May your ministry continue to be like that tree planted by the river of water.

Bless you,

Hello GEM Family,

I want to thank you again for sending me a calendar every year over the last 5 years. It means more than I can express. Starting my days off with the Scripture really helps.

I am currently at one of the most dysfunctional, drug infested prisons in S.C. I hope to be relocating by the grace of God.

I pray everyone in the GEM family had a very blessed year with more blessings to come.

I would appreciate a new calendar once again.

Thank you again, God bless
Prison, SC

Dear Brethren,

I am grateful that the Lord has appointed you for the progress of God's people in the knowledge of His Word and for the expansion of His kingdom.

I am lucky to be among those people that will enjoy the grace granted your ministry. May the Lord continue to move you forward in Jesus name.

Thank you for accepting my letter of request for help with books to aid my work in ministry for the Lord.

May the Lord almighty God send helpers to you in all areas of your life. I would like to be added to your regular mailing list and be glad to receive more from your ministry.

To GEM:

I want to thank this ministry in the name of Jesus.

I received my first order of publications last week and they were eye-opening! Especially the Biblical Doctrine of Salvation, Comfort in Suffering, and Eternal Security of the Believer.

They really helped clarify my position in Christ at a time when I was starting to doubt and felt like Esau who God "hated" and nothing like Jacob the child of promise or Saul who God removed His Spirit from, but now I know better. Thank you!

Dear Rev. Moses,

I would like to report to you that your books are very good here in Chikhwawa, Malawi.

They have helped me to win more souls back to God and we need more copies to distribute to more local pastors here.

Pastor,

Hello GEM

We love and use & give away your CD, Riding the Death Train. It is an amazingly clear presentation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Thank you for producing this wonderful CD.

We can use as many of those CDs as you can spare. We will pass them on to those in desperate need, with the hope and prayer that they will be saved.

Thank you for your help and your ministry.

God bless you!

To the Staff at Grace Evangelistic Ministries:

May God bless you. I read your book "Joseph, A Pillar of Grace." It was awesome! I prepared a sermon with some of the information that was in there and have deposited a lot of it in my spirit. A very anointed piece of writing.

Could you please send me the following publications:

Riding the Death Train
Overview of God's Grace
James: Faith Without Works is Dead
Paul, A Trophy of Grace

I'm currently enrolled in two separate Bible Colleges and I'm on the ministry team here at the prison. I am a deacon who backslid, but I'm now back on track. I'm thanking you in advance for your time and consideration in this matter.

NIGERIA: November, 2015

The conference began Wednesday, but on Tuesday a one man crusade had already taken place!

A young man insisted on carrying Moses' small bag so Moses agreed. Once in the room Moses asked the young man if he were to die today, would he go to heaven. He replied yes, he had been a good person. So Moses explained that he could not be good enough and only faith in the work of Jesus Christ could merit salvation.

The young man said "you are the third person who has told me this today. None of the others were clear, but I can understand what you are telling me." He trusted Christ right there and asked Moses to pray for him. He left with eternal life and a handful of books!

ETHIOPIA: November, 2015

Pastors Naboth, Maurice and Abraham traveled from neighboring Kenya to join Moses in Ethiopia. The conference was held for three days from 10 am to 4 pm. Each day one of three pastors from Kenya gave an opening message.

The pastors loved the teaching and said they look at their Bible differently now. Moses began to show the relationship between spiritual life and the condition of a nation. On Saturday night, at the end of the program, the team was honored with a visit to the home of our host, Rev. Tariku, for a special dinner cooked by his wife.

On Sunday Rev. Tariku, took Moses to an area that was hostile to the gospel - but that had recently seen much response to evangelism. Moses spoke to a group of 2,000 to encourage and edify the new believers and to give a clear gospel message to be sure all had clearly understood salvation by faith alone in Christ alone. They asked Moses to be their pastor from afar!

INDIA: December, 2015 (Two venues)

Pastor Emmanuel Reported: Around 100 pastors attended the conference. Rev. Moses taught "Spiritual Life Impacts Nations." This was a wonderful presentation of what the spiritual life is and what fellowship with God means. It touched the mind of the pastors. These were some of the comments we heard from those who attended.

- "Wow, wonderful message. We never realized this before."
- "We learned what it really means to be a Christian."
- "The spiritual life was defined in a new and right dimension - we have never heard about this."

Rev. Moses taught from 11:00 am to 4:30 pm. All were so blessed to be a part of the conference. He continued and taught the spiritual life and the Christ likeness life. We also had a question and answer hour and Moses taught "Who Are You?"—who we are in Christ. All were so blessed and impacted by the messages.

Pastors were so happy to see Moses again after many years. One man said that in twenty years of being a pastor he had never heard the Bible explained to him in this way. All gained a new understanding of how their spiritual life affects their country. Moses also spoke to a group of leaders on Saturday and in churches on Sunday. The Lord gave him strength - thank you for your prayers!

"Riding The Death Train" booklets in Telugu were given to all the pastors. Delicious food was enjoyed by all and all were given traveling fares. We hope that the fire ignited in the lives of these leaders will impact the nation. Thank you for your prayers. God Bless you.

Dr. Rao reported: The conference was excellent. All the first day attendees returned and ten more people joined. Many others phoned me for admission. But I was not able to host more. Every one was sitting and concentrating on what Rev. Moses taught. Not a single person left. They were immensely happy to learn the hidden truths of the Bible which had eluded them for decades.

On these two days Moses took them all back to the Bible. This week was a blessed week spiritually for all the 130 Pastors, Evangelists, Bible College Deans and Missionaries attending the seminar, and for me personally as well.

On Sunday Rev. Moses, and I, along with my son Gospel, went to two churches. One, an English speaking church, and another a Telugu speaking church. Moses preached very good messages in both the churches to the satisfaction and appreciation of the senior pastors and the whole congregation. Both pastors shared with their congregations how blessed they had been during the two-day conference. We were all blessed a lot. Thank you GEM once again. Be Blessed.

does not give himself to something of secondary importance.*

Recognizing that he does not have time for both the good and the best, he approves the things that are superior.

KUWAIT: January, 2016

The first day of the Kuwait conference did not end until about 1:30 am. They were overjoyed to see Moses again (4th trip). Moses reviewed justification and sanctification as well as the importance of and the place of the Word of God in their lives. With that foundation he went on to teach “The Spiritual Life” and “The Dynamic Power of the Holy Spirit.” (The interpreter said he had been waiting for someone to cover this topic!)

Fridays are the religious holiday in Islamic countries. With people having a free day, many conference activities made for a marathon day: morning church ended about 2 pm. followed by a short rest before the evening conference 7:30 pm - 10:30 pm. Then to another evening church service that lasted until well after midnight. Thanks for praying for strength and endurance! On the final day of the conference they all cheered at the end. Surprisingly there were even more people attending than on the holiday, and many had to go to work early in the morning.

On Sunday, Moses was to preach at an Indian church but no interpreter was available - so he spoke at an English speaking church that has a Nigerian Pastor! The verses explained, and various topics touched were the very topics the church had been studying. This astounded the congregation and reinforced the ministry of the Holy Spirit, a topic covered in the conference.

Monday night Moses was invited to someone's home for dinner. There were many other invited guests and it turned into a major Q & A Bible Class. This went on until well after midnight! Even though many had to go to work in a few hours, not one left the teaching. What a blessing to meet those so dedicated to the Lord and so hungry for the truth of His Word for their lives.

The "hotel ministry" was flourishing—everyone knew who Moses was and greeted him as "Pastor Moses." Some said they read "Riding the Death Train" which they had received the previous year.

LEBANON: January, 2016

Moses barely knew how to describe his first night speaking in Lebanon. In thirty years nothing like this had ever happened. He walked into the hall for the conference and there were only women—about 200 of them—not one single man!

He felt very strongly that the Lord had led him there. Our friends in Ethiopia had linked us with an interpreter there. But Moses wondered, "Lord, who are the people you have called me to minister to?"

He remembered Paul getting the call to "come over here and help us" and upon arrival he wondered "who are they...and where are they?" Paul searched and found only some women praying. Moses began teaching the women about Christ, His uniqueness and the importance of the virgin birth. They were all dumbfounded—having never heard any such truth. After an evening of teaching, praying and more teaching, the women knew the Lord had sent Moses to them. Many were saved and everyone was anxious to hear more.

They had grown weary of people coming to give programs that offered no Bible teaching. Now they knew God had heard their prayer and answered their heart's desire. The response in Lebanon grew from amazing to more amazing. After the surprising attendance of 200 women on Saturday, the number almost doubled on Sunday!

The crowd overflowed the room. People stood outside leaning in to hear. Inside, women were sitting on the podium and on the stairs leading to the podium. Moses, a small man, could barely make his way to the pulpit! Not one place was left anywhere. Even the aisles were full! They said, "Please teach us; we want to know more." And the interpreter said "Please pray for me; I want to know more."

Moses taught "For Whom Did Christ Die?" The message cites three groups and gives an example of each: the immoral - the woman at the well, the moral - Cornelius, and the religions - Nicodemus. Please pray that we can get some printed materials to them in their native language. We thank God for this open door and for these Lebanese women so hungry for the Word!

UAE: February, 2016

Pastor Asim and friends welcomed Moses to the United Arab Emirates! Since our last visit Asim has been teaching the message of grace he had learned, and with amazing results. Once, when he was explaining grace to a pastor, four other people were also listening and came to Christ! Another time Asim went to talk to a group of people at 8 pm thinking he would be through by 9 pm. At 3 am he told them he had to go because he had to be at work at 5 am! People are hungry for the grace gospel!

After day one of the UAE conference many said "today you have answered something that has been puzzling me." It is always awesome to see how God tailors His message to the people's needs. In another session Moses taught the Deity of Christ. Afterward so many came to him and said "When are you speaking again? I brought friends to hear you. The Scripture is taking on new meaning, no doubt the Spirit is speaking through you. One woman said her father had been a pastor for 30+ years and she had learned more from this session than she had in all those years.

Our Lebanon conference interpreter connected Moses with their ministry partners in the UAE. They were anxiously awaiting Moses' call; the people from Lebanon had been calling them all abuzz about their conference.

The two leaders came right away to meet Moses. "What was the message that has everyone so excited?" they wanted to know. GRACE! Moses told them. They had several more visits and they insisted that Moses must come the following month to join them in Turkey as most of their ministry work was to the Middle East. A personal escort to the underground church in Turkey was too rare an opportunity to miss even if it was just a month later. Moses gladly accepted this amazing open door.

TURKEY: March, 2016

The Republic of Turkey has a population of 79 million people and is about 99.8% Muslim. Christians number about 160,000.

Moses was able to minister to the underground church and after an evangelistic message four men came forward who had just trusted Christ. They identified themselves as ISIS members and said previously they had been prepared to die for what they did not know and now that they know who Jesus Christ is they are willing to risk their lives to tell others!

Each evening after dinner when Moses and his hosts gathered for prayer it extended on into another Bible class. Moses had to send them on their way at 2 am each morning. They did not want to leave—they wanted to hear more! The message of grace was received with awe! They were amazed at what they were learning about the deity of Christ!

We thank God for His protection. Just days after Moses' departure there was a bomb and gun attack in an area he had visited just a couple of days before. Your prayers for protection during his stay were answered.

HUNGARY: March, 2016

Rev. Moses, Pastor Bruce and Rev. Tayo ministered together in Hungary and were joined by Marian from Romania. They traveled three hours from Budapest by train, through the countryside to the small town where the conference was held.

Before the conference Pastor Bruce spoke to the church members about the importance of loving and showing grace toward one another, instead of bitterness and anger. It was only after the service that they were told how relevant the message was to the church they were visiting.

Rev. Moses spoke about the impact of the spiritual life and how believers are expected to represent Christ in this world. Both messages were well received. The pastor said it was a very encouraging evening for them and the members gave maximum concentration and received the Word with much gladness.

During the conference Pastor Bruce taught on forgiveness that comes from God through Jesus Christ to mankind and built upon that as a basis for interpersonal forgiveness. Rev. Moses taught on the two key instruments for the spiritual life, namely the Holy Spirit and the Word of God. He emphasized the importance of God's Word.

On Sunday, there were two sessions for church leaders in the morning and later another two sessions for the whole church. The church elders hosted a lunch for the GEM Team and they expressed their gratitude for the teachings they received. The host pastor remarked that the teachings were great spiritual nourishment for their souls. It was a very refreshing weekend for the people, many said that they are looking forward to next year.

Tayo and Marian continued on to Bulgaria, Macedonia, Serbia and Thessaloniki in Greece. The pastors visited acknowledged the need for sound teaching and discipleship and the need to reach out to the indigenous people.

CUBA: April, 2016

Moses and the GEM team along with Pastor Mark Perkins and his team from Front Range Bible Church in Denver Colorado embarked on our first journey ever to Cuba!

Upon arrival at the airport the customs agent directed us to go immediately to the exit. Since this was our first visit we did not know and simply followed directions. When someone went back inside to pick up a forgotten item we discovered we should have gone through a big customs exit line to be inspected and pay tariffs. Our books translated in Spanish had already sailed right through - no questions, no tariff. God provided!

What a blessing it was to bring the grace gospel to Cuba and encouragement from the Word to her people. Persecution has caused the church to grow; being closed to the rest of the world has brought suffering but also a kind of protection from evils of the world.

We were excited to be accompanied by Pastor Gonzalez who came to Christ from the gangs on the streets of New York City as written about in "The Cross and the Switchblade." He is still on fire for the Lord and is a great interpreter.

Tell of His glory among the nations, His wonderful deeds
among all the peoples. (Psalm 96:3)

KENYA: April, 2016 - Followup - GEM Africa outreach

Pastor Naboth in Kenya reports:

I traveled 200 kilometers (125 miles) and was met by a host of local leaders who had been waiting for me. We took a motorbike ride into the rainy evening, traveling 5 kilometers to a rural area until we finally came to the end of the formal road.

The muddy road stretching beyond was practically unusable by motorists which prompted us to finish the journey on foot. Good brethren assisted us as porters and we set off wading through the muddy terrain and pools of water in our quest to reach the village where the meeting for leaders from the entire county was to commence.

Pastors Swam the Raging River to Reach the Conference. This was another GEM "Back to the Bible Conference." With great expectation local leaders arrived from many village churches in the region through the heavy daily downpour. Rivers in the area were flooding with raging waters that can kill instantly and most make-shift bridges were being washed away.

For the first time in my entire career as a missionary I witnessed pastors swimming across stormy rivers to access the conference venue. Many pastors had to commute back home by the same route daily.

The leaders in attendance needed more basic Bible instruction so I taught Salvation, The Christian Life, Old Sin Nature, Discipline, and Confession of sin and how to get back in God's plan. We concluded with The Cross and God's Eternal Plan for Believers. Questions were similar to those our group asked when we first heard Rev. Moses teach this truth in Kenya for the first time in 2003. It was fun responding to these familiar questions.

Along with the conference we also held a daily crusade for souls and a film every night in the open church. We were blessed with plenty of local foods and drinks to feed on daily. At night we slept without mattresses, sharing small blankets in chilly grass roofed houses. We were exhausted but happy and grateful when it was over and glad to get back home and take a rest.

God Reached Them in Their Remote Location: The attending pastors said that the conference was such a helpful guide to their teaching ministries and requested more books for further reference. The few books we had were distributed during the conference and became a turning point in the lives of these teachers of the Word.

They marveled that despite their remote location God had an inventory of Truth in store for them. They asked me to attend their next two conferences this year. We praise God for seeing us through to deliver His grace message. Again to those who made this happen, a very humble Thank You All!

INDONESIA: May, 2016

Moses taught "The Dynamic Power of the Holy Spirit." in a two-day seminar. He began with Salvation in "Christ Alone by Faith Alone." He then went on to explain "The Ministry of the Holy Spirit and the Fruit of the Holy Spirit in the Christian Life." People said "We praise God that all the teachings are really the answer to many questions. Many verses helped us realize that we are imperfect as humans. Ordinary people filled by the Holy Spirit become extraordinary people!"

Moses visited another location and the pastor and leaders still remembered him from his visit seven years ago. Others traveled a great distance to meet with Moses before he departed venue #1. Last year the parents of one of them had followed Moses from venue to venue.

A two-day seminar was held at venue #2. All were very appreciative of the good teaching. The church even surprised Moses with a celebration for Moses and Gloria's 27th wedding anniversary!

Sunday morning there was a special service that combined the youth and the young professional business couples for Moses' final address, followed by a special lunch. Then Moses and our host drove several hours to the airport where special guests came to say their last goodbyes. Another pastor expressed his appreciation by coming from afar just to take Moses to the airport. You can see they wanted to squeeze every bit of God's Word they could from Moses while they had him.

GUATEMALA: May, 2016

The conference venue was half an hour from town (and the town was five hours from the airport!) Pastors came from afar; some traveled from remote places up to five hours away. They reminded Moses of Cornelius, how the Lord sent Peter to him and his family in an out-of-the-way place because He knew their need. When Moses asked how else would he have wound up in such an obscure place with pastors who endured so much to hear the Word if it were not of God, the room erupted in cheers!

The 42 pastors and leaders attended seven sessions in three days. They hope to invite Rev. Moses to speak at a national annual pastors meeting. The final day of the conference ended on a high note! They teased that they wanted to lock the doors and keep Moses with them. People commented: "Our eyes have been opened to Scripture. We have seen things we have never known before. We have had many conferences, but this one is practical."

*"And pray for us, too,
that God may open a door for our message,
so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ."*

(Col 4:3)

HONDURAS: May, 2016

Rev. Moses and Pastor Bruce spoke to an enthusiastic crowd of pastors from Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and San Salvador.

Moses also spoke in several churches and a school assembly. We had a wonderful time catching up with our host Joan Tyson and all the work the Lord has used her and her late husband Bob to accomplish in Honduras and all over Central America. (We learned of Joan's death as we completed our newsletter - our salute to a life well lived.)

Testimony to God's perfect provision and protection. Moses' flight to Honduras from Guatemala was delayed about three hours. This meant our three hour journey from the airport to our destination began at 4pm instead of 1pm. Before long it was dark and raining—a dangerous combination for a hilly road with many sharp curves.

Near the end of our trip the traffic came to a standstill; just a few cars ahead there had been a terrible crash. A huge truck had crossed the center line and hit three vehicles. As we passed we could see a motorcycle under the truck and a small pickup that was demolished, having been hit head on and yet another vehicle off the side of the road. Hundreds of people were flocking to the terrible scene, six people died.

This could just as easily have been us. We had a short delay at the airport when the driver could not pull up to the door, so we walked to the van. That walk was possibly the few minutes that put us behind the crash instead of in the middle of it. We are always reminded of God's constant care for us.

Church on the hill. We travel to minister to people and often we find that they are ministering to us. On Sunday evening we traveled twenty minutes off the main road up and up a rocky winding road, wet from the rain. The side of the road was a sheer drop off with no room for a car to pass.

We climbed up past the wind turbines on the peaks of the hillside, to discover a lovely little church. It was packed with families who gladly stayed and listened to two messages. As our van took us back down the winding road we passed the faithful, many walking as much as two hours to reach home undeterred by the threat of rain. Their devotion was humbling and inspiring to us all. We praise God for all He has done!

MEXICO: May, 2016

The Pastor's Conference was held for three days. Pastor Bruce spoke on "The Big Picture of the Bible"—God's glory through His treatment of creation. Moses spoke on "The Deity of Christ." Pastor Jose, our host, translated. The pastor's were very happy and so many expressed their heartfelt thanks. We praise God for all we see Him doing.

The Ford family from Pine Valley Bible Church and Bonnie Kolczak from San Antonio Bible Church joined us and worked with children. We interacted with children at a downtown recreation center - they were most receptive to the gospel message.

Open air crusades were held on two nights in two different locations and children were also evangelized. At one location we met a young man who had been saved by reading "Riding The Death Train" in a prison in Texas. He was deported and is now living in a small rural town in Mexico. Imagine his surprise when he saw Moses' picture on a poster announcing the crusade in his town!

Believers were encouraged and adults and children were evangelized. The Lord sent us to obscure corners where missionaries seldom go. We are grateful. One venue was far out into the high desert of the Mexican countryside. The landscape felt as if we were on location in a western movie!

Moses had the surprise of meeting Pastor Joseph, a Spanish speaking Nigerian who has a church in Mexico! Amazingly they are from the same tribe and grew up in the same part of Nigeria.

Pastor Bruce spoke in Pastor Jose's church on Sunday Morning and Moses spoke in Pastor Vidal's church on Sunday evening. It was wonderful to see old friends and make new ones and to witness the growth of the church in Mexico. We praise God for all He is doing in Mexico.

GEM: Summer Conference, June 2016

We enjoyed seeing friends old and new from Cuba, Canada, England, and in the USA from Alabama, California, Florida, Idaho, Louisiana, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Texas and many others.

Pastor Rokser taught on "How to Poison Yourself and Others" - through bitterness - which grieves and quenches the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

Pastor Bruce Bumgardner and Rev. Moses spoke on many aspects of the Holy Spirit: Spiritual Gifts, Christian Unity, Filling of the Holy Spirit, Overview of Ministry of The Holy Spirit in O.T. and N.T.

Rev. Tayo Arikawe, Director of GEM Europe joined us from the UK for his first visit to the US. And Pastor Frias from Cuba came accompanied by interpreter Pastor Gonzalez.

Hope you can join us in 2017 for "How to Build a Healthy Marriage" June 23-25, Nashville, TN.

This message is resonating and many are requesting this be made into a book. Please pray for that. We now have the message posted under media, audio at www.GEMworldwide.org (Austin Bible Church mission report is the first 15 minutes, then message begins).

SENEGAL: August, 2016

Moses and the GEM Team safely arrived in Senegal after being tangled up in the big Delta Airlines system outage.

Pastor Timothy's church in Senegal warmly welcomed us for a three-day Bible Conference plus church on Sunday. We would meet his Senior Pastor, Pastor Dayo, in Port Harcourt days later.

The message of grace was received with much enthusiasm. One young man beaming, excitedly declared: "Reverend, we have never heard these things before!" This is exactly why we go, often to obscure locations, to reach those who are hungry and who have never heard. There is indeed a famine for truth in the land.

Thank you for your faithfulness to pray. It was amazing to watch God take people from two opposite sides of the world and bond them to each other for the sake of the gospel and His glory!

Thanks for traveling with us. Prayers were mightily answered!

GAMBIA: August, 2016

The people of Gambia met us with great enthusiasm—they have been waiting 10 years for Rev. Moses' return. Pastor Bruce traveled with the team and Moses and Bruce both taught at the three-day pastor's conference!

The pastors are so encouraged to take undiluted gospel truth to their country where traditional African churches are often mixed with tribal customs. At the prayer meeting on our last evening Pastor Tony said that even some occult leaders have entered the church—seeing it as a business opportunity. The pastor's want to take the church back for the grace gospel.

We also attended the first ordination of an evangelical Bible based Gambian pastor. There was much excitement, many dignitaries and even television coverage! (Other's have been missionary pastors from other countries.)

Please pray for our brothers and sisters in The Gambia!

NIGERIA: August, 2016

The Nigeria Pastor's conference was a tremendous success. The day before it began Pastor Clem, our host and organizer, took Rev. Moses all around the city to speak, giving people a preview of the conference. Moses spoke at a radio station, a church's six year celebration and the final night of a pastor friend's three-day program. Rev. Tayo, Pastor Bruce and Rev. Darlington also fanned out teaching all around the city, introducing the GEM team.

One bishop who came to the conference said "I wondered, if Moses could say that much in 20 minutes what could he say in a whole day. I had to come and see."

The conference hall was packed, with more than 400 attending. One group has already pleaded with Moses to return for their annual meeting attended by thousands. (Preparations for this trip are ongoing as this newsletter goes to press.) Pastor Clem and the organizers are already looking forward to next year. The talk after the meetings was "Revival it has Begun."

Sunday was followed up with Church visits. Darlington, Tayo, Bruce and Moses all taught at various churches around the city. During one Sunday School a man gave a testimony that because of what he had learned from Pastor Bruce's teaching on Forgiveness at the conference, he had forgiven a wrong he had been holding on to since 1966!

This was even more meaningful because when the organizers saw Bruce's picture on the flier they were a bit apprehensive: Could he be understood? Could he relate? Yet when it came time for him to leave they didn't want to let him go. Everyone marveled at the oneness of spirit and the bonding. We see the fingerprints of God - knowing who to partner with whom.

Moses even discovered that Clem's friend of 25 years, Pastor Gospel, had been Moses' father's pastor in the village and also the assistant pastor in Gloria's (Moses' wife) church when she was a young girl living with her uncle in Kano!

Many GEM friends came from all over Nigeria and Rev. Darlington came from Canada and Pastor Tayo joined from the UK. We came to be in Port Harcourt through Pastor Tayo's friend, Pastor Clem. Tayo had been handing Pastor Clem books for more than a decade. Tayo met Clem when he was courting his wife Calista—Clem was Calista's pastor before she and Tayo were married. When Pastor Clem noticed that the church was very widespread yet was having no impact he decided it was time to invite Moses for a conference.

The conference was the first item on Rev. Darlington's agenda after his return to Nigeria from his seminary training in Canada. He is reorganizing the GEM Africa office in Jos and getting it back up to a fully functioning office. We are all excited for that good news.

Thanks for praying. Please continue to pray that the revival fire will continue to burn. The Church has been hijacked by those using it for personal profit and non-biblical practices. Pray for Rev. Tayo and Rev. Darlington as they continue to coordinate with Pastor Clem and his team for followup and future meetings.

We praise God for this wonderful opportunity and for the bonds He formed between the organizers and our team. We are grateful that there was also an opportunity for Debby and Lonnie to teach children and to pass training aids on to many other pastors during our stay. We thank God for all He is doing in our time!

How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!
(Romans 10:15)

G.E.M. Overview Summary

(Entire Overview is available at www.GEMworldwide.org)

Grace Evangelistic Ministries is incorporated in the State of Tennessee as a nonprofit organization. We are a Christian, nondenominational, missionary oriented ministry, dedicated to evangelism and sound Bible teaching. Our main focus is evangelism; all other activities support our main goal. Our mission, in obedience to the command of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, is to: "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations" (Matt. 28:19).

Evangelize unbelievers, adults and children, with the simple, grace Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

No. 2 – New Convert Follow-up

Follow-up with those who choose to believe in Christ.

No. 3 – Preparation of Indigenous Pastors

Because those who have responded to the Gospel will become unfruitful if they are not exposed to sound Bible teaching, we will:

- b. Introduce pastors and prospective pastors to doctrinally sound resources.

- c. Provide opportunities for churches to send missionaries.

No. 4 – Satellite Centers

Establish foreign satellite centers for duplication of recorded Bible lessons and reproduction and distribution of doctrinal literature as funds become available.

No. 5 – Publications

Prepare periodic newsletters, which include Bible exposition, and missionary reports.

- a. Convert the missionary teachings of Rev. Moses Onwubiko into books.

- b. Reprint overseas when possible to save costs.

No. 6 – Assist the Needy

Caring for the needy or the poor is a timeless, Biblical principle and it is incorporated directly or indirectly in God's mandates. In light of this, our mission embraces provision of spiritual food for all and sustenance for the needy as the Lord provides and directs.
